

Dear Benjamin

I should like to hear how you carry sail at College - your un-weildy self and your unweildy class.
How many suspensions & how many fines?
How much of your college noise, bustle and riot. I do not recollect the days of your vacation, but it is not long after this period - I did think I never should forget these things, but now they are gone -

Mr Clark described you as a tall slim fellow - who wanted have thought that I should have been by the ~~rather~~ shortest of the family excepting our little father.

What are you going to study as a profession - have it in mind: come to our city. I want some of you here. W.

Benjamin Waterhouse Junr

Student of Harvard Univ

Mr Clark Cambridge