All the Good Folks

I wrote home last Friday by the Stage for that Sallust that Mr Gray has, for my piece has got to come out of it, but the Stage, ~~but the stage~~ come up this afternoon without it, which has put me out a good deal - I must have it Tuesday whether or no Mr Adams said that piece that papa got, was not fit for the occasion, it is but a fortnight to the end of the term - My head has ached for these two days rite over my eyes most all the time if it twas not for that I should be pretty smart but when my headaches all the time & I have to study all the time to keep up with the class who have got three weeks before me is too tuff but it is not but 2 weeks longer that I shall have to stay here & I shall be glad when it is gone, all that I learnt before I came home I forgot & they now get long lessons, but I have thus far been able to keep up I guess I shall be able to tuff it out the rest of the term Grin & bare it Mrs Abbot & Margret are both very sick Mrs Abbot has kept her bed all day Mrs ~~Abbot~~ ~~is~~ ~~resting~~ ~~her~~ ~~teeth~~ mouth is full of cankers tho I believe that she is charly more than she is hurt about Margret & herself tho they both are very sick - When Betty started from here that afternoon it did not rain here all the afternoon for a rarely tho it has almost ever since - I don't want anything at present but I shall want some ~~clothes~~ other trousers & jacket for my part is single & will be first "Smart" but there is time enough. I have no more time
