

P. Berkeley St.,

Cambridge: Jan. 22, 1903

Dear Dr. Chadwick:

I send you another great gross of thanks for the latest consignment of magazines. Are you sure that you have not robbed yourself?

At last the former letter

Dr. Waterhouse. Never having read the Set, I supposed that punes's were more numerous. I'm sorry to have raised your expectations too high.

It seems that Dr. W.'s last wife, who survived him, had in her old age almost a mania for hiding or destroying things; & to this is attributed the fact that of what must have been a full conversation, extending have gone into the Boston Med. ical Library. I regret to say that I was wrong about their number. I dimly recollected seeing fifteen or twenty pasted in a book, which has been long stored in the Trust Co's vault. On examination, I find that only three are Jenner's - the rest being Jefferson's & Madison's - also to over many years, between James & Dr. W. only these fragments remain. It's too bad!

I hope you had a pleasant trip to Baltimore. We are planning to spend April in Rome - not Georgia, or New York, but Latium - think of it!

Ever truly yours,

W. R. Thayer
