

SERIES XLIV. — PHRENOLOGY.

The following specimens, excepting a few that will be designated, were collected by the Boston Phrenological Society; and, after its active existence terminated, they were purchased by Dr. J. C. Warren, and presented by him to the Medical College in 1847. The first specimens were from the Collections of Dr. Spurzheim, and of Mr. J. D. Holm, of London; and the following memoranda and descriptions are from the Phrenological Society's Catalogue.

The masks have an asterisk (*) prefixed; the skulls have a cross (†); and the heads have no distinctive mark.
