

LEGATION AMERICA

Paris, 8 February, 1808.

Sir,

I have the honor of transmitting to you a Diploma from the Faculty of the School of Medicine, and of informing you that one of the Professors has instructed me to request you to acknowledge its receipt.

I am, Sir, with great respect,
Your very obedt
and humble Serv

D. B. Worsley

Professor Waterhouse.

8 February 1808.

I have the honor of receiving to you a Librarian from the Faculty of the School of Theology, and of requesting you that one of the Librarians should attend to the Librarian's to advantage as it respects
I am, Sir, your Obedient Servant

J. B. Williams

James Williams

Will you please for 1803

James Watson

Edinburgh

With my Diploma from Paris
Feb. 1808

Professor Waterhouse,

Cambridge,