

- (p. 151, No. 884) - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1046. 87th, "Cancerous degeneration of the spinal marrow." - Dr. John Ware.
1905. (p. 151, No. 885) - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1047. 88th, "Inflammation, with purulent infiltration, on the anterior portion of the spinal marrow." - (p. 151, No. 883.)
1903. - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1048. 89th, "Inflammation of the spinal marrow, with effusion of blood upon the posterior + anterior portions." - (p. 150, No. 882.) - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1902. 90th, "Acute inflammation of the membranes of the spinal marrow." - (p. 150, No. 880.) - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1049. 91th, "Inflammation + softening of the spinal marrow." - (p. 150, No. 881.) - 1849. - Dr. John Ware.
1904. A series of twelve casts of Typical Skulls, modelled from the original crania in the collection of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia, under the direction of Dr. Samuel G. Morton.
1051. Presented to the Museum of the Medical College by Dr. John S. Warner October 6th, 1849.
- 1st English; anglo-saxon.
1052. 2^d. German.
- 3186
1053. 3^d. Ancient Egyptian.
- 3188
1054. 4th. Græco-Egyptian.
- 3179
1055. 5th. Sphæ.
- 3168
1056. 6th. Chilian.
- 3252
1057. 7th. Malay.
- 3218
1058. 8th. Aboriginal American.
- 3286
1059. 9th. Ancient Peruvian.
- 3381
1060. 10th. The same.
- 3302
1061. 11th. Negro.
- 3221
1062. 12th. Australian.

3246 The following collection of National skulls + casts of skulls were presented to the college in the year 1847 by Dr. John S. Warner; with the exception of three Peruvian skulls (Nos. 1102, 1103, + 1104), which were given May 17th, 1849.